

JULIA MARLOWE'S NAME TAKEN OUT OF DIVORCE CASE

Mrs. Von Hermann's Lawyer
Admits Charges Were False and Withdraws Them.

Declaring that after careful sifting of the evidence he is convinced the information on which Clara L. Von Hermann sued Karl Stephen Von Hermann for divorce, naming Miss Julia Marlowe, the actress, and Maude Thorburn Backus, of Brooklyn, as co-respondents, is wholly unreliable, Attorney Percy A. Bridgman, who filed the petition, has had it dismissed in the Superior Court at Albany, Mass. The names of Miss Marlowe and of Mrs. Backus are eliminated entirely from the case.

"I have known Mrs. Von Hermann as well as other members of the family for a great many years," said Attorney Bridgman, "and for that reason was induced to prosecute the libel in her behalf."

A new suit has been brought by Mrs. Von Hermann for divorce on the ground of the use of morphine and other drugs. Miss Marlowe left for her home in the Catskills before the new suit was filed. The new suit was drawn from the case reached New York. She gave up her apartments at the Plaza, and had succeeded in her spring engagement on the advice of her physician, Dr. John E. Stillwell, No. 9 West Forty-third street.

Dr. Stillwell, on hearing the Miss Marlowe's name had been withdrawn from the Von Hermann divorce case, said:

"Poor girl, it would have done her world of good could she but have heard that before she left. She suffered intensely, and I am sorry that I cannot tell her the news this very minute."

Lee Shubert said:

"It was not a surprise to me to hear that Miss Marlowe was going to New York in the Catskills, for her name has been withdrawn from the case. It was an unjust, malicious, utterly groundless charge, and none of her thousands of friends believed it."

The place where Miss Marlowe will try to regain her shattered health is in an isolated portion of the Catskills. She bought the old-fashioned house and large estate seven years ago, and at rare intervals when she has had rest of perfect quiet and rest, went to it.

SLEICHER REAPPOINTED.

ALBANY, April 17.—Gov. Hughes has sent to the Senate the nomination of John A. Sleicher, of New York, as member of the State Water Supply Commission to succeed himself, for five years, at $3,000 a year.

Fat De'ating Extraordinary

Margaret Knolly

SLIMMER Margaret Knolly, now, if you please, the fascinating leading lady of the Bijou, now more fascinating than ever, astonished all her friends on Broadway the other day by presenting to their admiring gaze a sleek, well-proportioned figure in place of the plump, not to say fat, outlines with which she early called name to new triumph and foreign shores last January. After a good deal of diplomatic cross-examination from interested acquaintances the secret was cautiously whispered to a few dear friends, with the result that everybody knows it now. It was not exercise, nor fasting, nor sea air, nor worry about her new venture that had brought about this wonderful change in the charming Margaret. No, none of these things, but a simple mixture which all good druggists are familiar with and can supply at small cost, to-wit: One-half ounce Marmosa, one-half ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatica, and three and one-half ounces of Syrup Simplex. "When folks need a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime," explained the rowdy member Margaret, "it is simply wonderful. It takes off the fat quicker, as much as a pound a day, and keeps it off. You can't eat what you like too, in that respect it is just like anything of the kind I ever heard of, and besides it has another splendid feature—it is entirely harmless and will not cause weakness. I think it is about as essential a toilet article for the woman who is fat and wants to get thinner as face powder. In order to get the best results, however, you should buy the Marmosa in the original package and mix it in with the other two ingredients after you get home."
